Meet the Editors Event
2019 BISA Annual Conference
London 12-14 June

The BISA PGN is proud to be hosting again our Meet the Editors Event for the 2019 Annual Conference in London, 12-14 June. This event is a unique opportunity to gain valuable insight for PhD and Early Career Researchers seeking to make inroads into publishing as part of their research career.

Receive Tailored Feedback on your Article from our Highly Experienced Editors of:

International Affairs
Politics
European Security
The Review of International Studies
The European Journal of International Security
And More

Deadline: Send your Quality Draft Article by The 10th of February 2019

No abstracts accepted. Articles only.
Please consult the guidelines overleaf
For more information, please contact us on: bisapgnexec@gmail.com
Meet the Editors Event
2019 BISA Annual Conference
London 12-14 June

Guidelines For Participants

Mandatory Eligibility Criteria:

- PhD Students. Must be BISA Members and registered at the 2019 London Conference.
- Early Career Researchers (up to 24 months after having completed the PhD). Must be BISA Members and registered at the 2019 London Conference.

Mandatory Requirements for Submitting a Paper:

- The paper must clearly and explicitly answer these questions:
  - What debate does this paper contribute to?
  - What is the original contribution of this paper?
  - Why is this contribution significant?
- The author may identify a preferred Journal and if so apply its formatting and word count guidelines. However, identifying a preferred Journal is not mandatory.
- Papers must be submitted with a letter from the supervisor/peer certifying that the paper has been reviewed.
- The quality standard must be close to publication.
- Successful participants must come prepared in order to discuss in fuller detail the feedback with the editor.

Submission Deadline:

The 10th of February 2019 (at 5pm)

Get in touch: bisapgnexec@gmail.com